

Funds for ‘green power’ bidders

RENEWABLES | The Industrial Development Corporation and Mergence Investment Managers say they will provide R600m in debt funding, for 10 small and medium enterprises bidding under the Department of Energy’s first round to supply 50MW of renewable power from small projects ranging from 1MW-5MW, the two organisations said yesterday. Staff Writer

This material has been copied under a DALRO licence and is not for resale or retransmission.