

MERGENCE Investment Managers has appointed Kasief Isaacs portfolio manager responsible for infrastructure equity investments.

Isaacs's career spans more than 20 years, with a specific focus on the energy industry.

He joins Mergence from PwC, where he was a director in its advisory services business and developed and led PwC's South African renewable energy practice.

He qualified as a chartered accountant in 1998 and has a BCom honours degree from the University of the Western Cape. He started his career with PwC in South Africa before moving to the UK, where he built up significant project management experience over nearly 10 years, managing projects and leading teams spanning several countries and multiple languages.
